Dear Friends of New Covenant Center:

I am excited to share that our 16th Annual Celebrity Breakfast will be held on Friday, May 8th at Woodway Country Club in Darien. This year's program should be special, as we are honored that Bishop Frank J. Caggiano of the Diocese of Bridgeport and Rabbi Jay TelRav of Temple Sinai in Stamford will be co-Keynote Speakers in a "conversation style," in what promises to be an enlightening discussion across various topics.

This is New Covenant Center's 42nd year of providing basic living essentials and services, combined with longer-term solutions that focus on self-sufficiency to those in need.

Here are some highlights of what we provide:

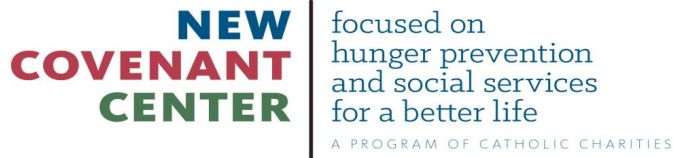

- 600,000 meals annually through our Café and Food Pantry, making New Covenant Center the largest food insecurity program in lower Fairfield County
- Showers, as the only day shelter offering this: Approximately 25 per week that includes toiletries, towels, underwear and other extremity clothing
- Job skills training in the maintenance and kitchen areas to 55-and-older participants in the federal, Senior Community Service Employment Title V program
- Immigration Counseling and life coaching

We could not provide these services to the marginalized in our community without our 700 volunteers and the financial support of generous donors, both of whom are the backbone of our existence. Thank you so much for your support and we hope to see you on May 8!

My very best,

Executive Director
John Gutman
